

KIT Final Conference Programme

“Cyprum quondam novem regnorum sedem...: a multidisciplinary approach to Cyprus’ Iron Age political and territorial fragmentation”

4th and 5th of October 2024

Cultural Centre of the Municipality of Idalion (Dali), Cyprus

Friday, 4th October

1.30 p.m.–2.30 Registration, welcome and general introduction

Session 1 (WP1): historical sources

2.30–3.00 Anna Cannavò
Presentation of the activities of KIT WP1

3.00–3.30 Stevens Bernardin, Françoise Briquel-Chatonnet, Jimmy Daccache, Robert Hawley
The new administrative ostraca from Kition-Bamboula: a preliminary investigation

3.30–4.00 Stevens Bernardin, Robert Hawley
On the linguistic adaptation of Eteocypriot proper names into Greek and Phoenician: some examples of metathesis

Coffee break

4.30–5.00 Rostyslav Oreshko
Cyprus, Cilicia and non-Greek Aegean: onomastics as evidence for the early settlement history of Cyprus

5.00–5.30 Evangéline Markou
The coin die study of Idalion and Kition: some preliminary remarks

Discussion

7.30 Dinner

Saturday, 5th October

Session 2 (WP2): material culture

9.30 a.m.–10 Matthias Recke
Presentation of the activities of KIT WP2

10.00–10.30 Anna Satraki, Anna Georgiadou
Idalion and its neighbours: economic and cultural dynamics in the Mesaoria Plain during the Iron Age

KIT Final Conference Programme

10.30–11.00 Miglena Dimova

The Great Goddess of Cyprus and the Near Eastern/Phoenician parallels in her cult: the case study of Idalion

Coffee break

11.30–12.00 Pamela Gaber

La Longue Durée: the view from Idalion

12.00–12.30 Pauline Maillard

Some remarks about the horned god in the territories of Kition and Idalion

12.30–1 p.m. Markus Helfert

New insights in the provenance and distribution of Iron Age terracottas in Cyprus. Geochemical analysis of ceramics from Kition, Idalion and Tamassos

Discussion

Lunch

Session 3 (WP3): spatial archaeology

2.30–3.15 Raphael Eser and Alexandre Rabot

Presentation of the activities of KIT WP3 and some results

3.15–3.45 Thea Christoforou, Frixos Markou

Reconsidering the archaeological data from the eastern foothills of Troodos: a landscape approach using GIS

3.45–4.15 Patrizia Birchler Emery, Julien Beck

Between Kition, Idalion and Tamassos: a rural perspective from Kataliondas-Kourvellos

Coffee break

4.45–5.15 Will M. Kennedy

All quiet in the northwest? An explorative assessment of the rural environs of ancient Marion. Status quo and future perspectives

5.15–5.45 Giorgos Papantoniou, Athanasios K. Vionis

In-between Amathous, Idalion and Kition: a comparative approach to territoriality in the Iron Age and Late Antiquity in the Xeros River valley

Discussion

Despina Pilides, Conclusions

Sunday, 6th October

Visit of the PaSyDY site and archaeological museum (Nicosia), guided by Despina Pilides.

